

RDMBA UNIFORM POLICY

The intent of this policy is to describe the uniforms that the performance and competitive teams will wear when representing the RDMBA.

Uniform Jersey's: Uniform jerseys will be provided by the RDMBA. Uniform jerseys shall be either solid red or blue in color. The only cresting allowed on the jersey is the RDMBA crest along with the crest from the official sponsor.

Pants: All performance and competitive players/teams will supply their own pants. Pants shall be solid grey or white in color.

Hats: Hats will be supplied by and purchased through RDMBA. No other cresting/sponsorship will be allowed on the hats unless approved by the RDMB Board.

Sleeves: Sleeves are not provided by the RDMBA. If sleeves are worn under the jerseys, they shall be either solid red or blue in color

Belts: Belts will not be provided by the RDMBA. Players/teams will supply their own belts which will be red or blue in color.

Socks: Socks will not be provided by the RDMB. Players/teams will supply their own socks which will be red or blue in color.

Uniform Usage: Only official jersey's provided by the RDMB shall be worn in games while representing the RDMBA.

Replacement: Uniform jerseys shall be replaced as required and as determined by the RDMBA Asset Director.

Each team representing RDMB in the performance and competitive divisions shall be provided with two sets of uniform jerseys. Jerseys are to be returned to the Asset Director at the end of each season.

Failure to comply with this policy can lead to disciplinary actions as deemed appropriate by the RDMBA.

There is currently one exception to this policy that being the one set of PeeWee jersey's which are blue and red in color. These will be considered official jersey's until such time as they are replaced.

REVISED: January 26, 2009